

QUALITY ASSURANCE AUDITOR

A quality assurance auditor monitors companies production process to ensure they are in compliance with governmental regulations.

WHAT RESPONSIBILITIES WILL I HAVE?

- Perform product sampling duties and prepare reports based on findings
- Provide legible, accurate, complete and timely computer entries and documents
- Ensure appropriate decisions are made regarding the quality characteristics of products, materials and equipment
- Able to meet sensory demands of the job: taste and feel
- Safely use chemicals required for testing and cleaning
- Successfully complete Hazard Analysis Critical Control Point (HACCP), Good Manufacturing Practice (GMP), and Food Security Training
- Ensure attendance and participation in training activities appropriate to the position and to incorporate acquired skills and knowledge
- Ensure no injuries to self or others by following safe work practices and policies
- Ensure the interface with team members and other support groups is in a participative management style conducive with operational goals
- Report findings to management, if it is of safety concerns, do so immediately

WHAT EDUCATION & TRAINING IS REQUIRED?

A bachelor's degree in food science, animal science, poultry science or other related field is required

THE FOLLOWING HIGH SCHOOL COURSES ARE RECOMMENDED...

Agricultural education, mathematics, biology, chemistry, business and computer courses

TYPICAL EMPLOYERS

Food production companies, government agencies, third party contractors

FUTURE JOB MARKET/OUTLOOK

SUGGESTED PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS & ASSOCIATIONS

- Society of Quality Assurance
- Quality Assurance Association
- International Association for Food Protection
- Produce Marketing Association

AVERAGE ANNUAL FULL-TIME SALARY

$64,000